Philip Fisher with the Phoenix Program and Carol Melcher catch up during lunch at the Durango/La Plata Senior Center on Friday. Melcher works in the center's kitchen. The service day project honoring Martin Luther King Jr. was arranged by Southwest Conservation Corps' Education and Outreach Program. Volunteers from Escalante Middle School, Durango High School, the Phoenix Program, DeNier Youth Services Center and SW Eclectic Homeschoolers were among those who helped serve lunch. For more information, call program coordinator Erin Thomas at 259-8607.
